

Reflection Notes
The Enchanted Forest

Resistant to it
story about the way life was “suppose to look”
challenged by belief (p. 37)
a tourist...always knows where home was

Enchanted - nature
Disenchanted/related to place

things have changed!
things are different...why?

“the scaffolding of our stories is cracking”

could not figure it out alone...called a therapist... “I need help” “by the grace of God and a good therapist”

a gradient of possible responses

her struggles with her church

Sacred Ground
white privilege...our enchanted forest?

King Solomon
?the wisdom of....
Betrayed his values

What do I need to do to help others?
to give of the blessings I've been given

Where did we stop paying attention
What is that place within my own ego space that distances me from God?

fruitful vs production

Disneyland... “this is where I belonged”

Church Cracked Open (book by Stephanie Spellers)
Sophia as an eagle

